

Comets Chronicle

Looking for writers and contributors for the 2010 editions of the Comets Chronicle, your student newspaper.

All students are invited (and uniquely qualified) to help create e-editions of the news or participate in video versions of happenings around school.

Read the next issue on January 21, 2010

THE PRESSES!

Stop the presses ... until we get YOUR contribution to the Comets Chronicle.

The news is for the students, by the students. Use the Comets Chronicle to share YOUR news: class news, sports events, celebrations, extra-curricular activities, your special causes, letters to the editor, artwork, puzzles, tidbits, book reviews, movie favorites, places to eat, fun places to visit, family news, your opinions - it's ALL great news for the

Comets Chronicle.

Attend an informational meeting about joining the newspaper staff or how to submit work as a contributing writing.

Informational Meeting:

Thursday, January 7, 2010
First Grade classroom
from 3:00 p.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Contact: dlee@csdo.org
to sign up, submit articles, or ask questions!

Can't wait? Gather your thoughts and impressions from your holidays: write about a favorite gift or experience. Did you see a fun movie or read a great book? Share your thoughts. Love to create puzzles? Make one for us to solve. Did you give of your time and talent? Brag about it. Thought about producing a video? Share your plans and we'll help you direct it. Got a sketch you want to share? We can scan your work for the world to see. Got an idea? Send it to dlee@csdo.org today! Hope to see you at the meeting.
